2024 TRIP ITINERARY

Jan.20

DAY 1

We travel by private coach to Donegal via Brú na Bóinne, where we visit the Newgrange monument. We will lunch in the Boyne Valley, then onwards to our accommodation in Donegal. After check-in, you'll be invited to enjoy a complimentary drink and live music from Johnny Gallagher and The Boxty Band, for some folk, blues and rock n' roll - Donegal style!

Jan.21

DAY 2

Our day begins with a cultural talk about Irish History, before a guided tour of Donegal Castle. We visit famous Sliabh Liag - Ireland's highest sea cliffs. We'll enjoy a meal at Anderson's Boathouse Restaurant in Killybegs and return to a live performance from The Henry Girls.

Jan.22

DAY 3

An early start as we make our way to Arranmore Island, one of Donegal's offshore Gaelic-speaking islands. We'll visit the Beaver Island Memorial, and check into our overnight stay in Dunlewey. We end our evening with a meal and entertainment in Leo's Tavern, home of Clannad and Enya.

Jan.23

DAY 4

A visit to Glenveagh estate, and to Croithlí Distillery for a great whiskey tour & tasting. We'll stop for lunch at award-winning Blás Restaurant in Donegal town, and then its back to Bundoran for a performance by the great local band The Messages.

Jan.24

DAY 5

A morning talk on 'Irish Writers through the ages' - looking at Ireland's rich literary history sets up our day with a tour of Yeats Country & Sligo City, for a chance to explore the writer's area of inspiration, and this small city on the Wild Atlantic Way. Then its back to Dublin where we'll conclude our tour.
