Discover a rich culinary history

Ireland's food industry has gone from strength to strength over the last few decades, becoming one of Europe's premier destinations for gastronomic adventures. With a veritable smorgasbord of talented chefs, incredible local produce, and second-to-none hospitality - Ireland is the perfect place to learn about European food culture.

Experience a new culture

Immerse yourself in Irish culture; the food, the people, the music and the landscapes. We'll visit cities and rural towns, eat at Irish restaurants, and meet people from across the island. Learn about the country's culinary history, with visits to fantastic North West gastronomy centres and other important locations.

Explore beautiful cities, rural towns and countryside

We are located on the Wild Atlantic Way, home to the most breath taking scenery in Europe. You'll visit cliffs, caves, you might choose a hike or a surf, or simply just absorb the beauty of our coast. Our small towns are friendly, safe places for everyone, with a sincere welcome for you.
